VEHICLE AND TRAFFIC

~~*—Vehicle and Traffic Law, §1800 governs with respect to the fines which may be imposed for violations of section 1203 b (2) (which is the prohibitory statute applicable to handicapped parking spaces violations other than those designated under section 1203 c). A first conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $50 or by imprisonment for not more than 15 days, or both. Any local law or ordinance adopted pursuant to the authority of the Vehicle and Traffic Law may fix a fine at a lesser amount than that prescribed by section 1800, but such fine cannot exceed the maximum sums limited by that statute. (See: Opns St Comp, 1980, No. 80 798).~~

~~**—Vehicle and Traffic Law, § 306(b) governs with respect to the fines which may be imposed for violations involving motor vehicle operated or parked without a certificate [or certificates] of inspection, is or are displayed upon the vehicle or affixed to the registration certificate for the vehicle. A temporary indicia of inspection to be placed on a motor vehicle which shall be valid as a certificate of inspection for a period not to exceed fifteen days upon the loss, theft, mutilation or destruction of a certificate of inspection. A fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for a first offense may be imposed, and by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than fifteen days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, for each subsequent offense; provided however, that if the vehicle bears a certificate or certificates of inspection which was or were valid within the last sixty days, such violation shall be punishable by a fine of not less than twenty five nor more than fifty dollars.~~

~~***—All fines must not exceed the maximum fine established in New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law, § 1800 (b). § 1800 (b).~~

~~§ 126-24~~

B. Two (2) or More Violations. However, any person who shall have been convicted of two (2) or more violations of Article III of this ~~chapter~~Chapter within ~~an~~ an eighteen-month (18 month) period shall not have the option of following the procedure set forth in Subsection A hereof but must appear before the Court, and such person, upon conviction, shall be subject to the imposition of a fine within the limits set forth in § 126-24 hereof.

§ 126-24. Additional penalty provisions.

- A. Every person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this ~~chapter for which another penalty is not provided shall, for a first conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) or by imprisonment for not more than fifteen (15) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; for a second such conviction within eighteen (18) months thereafter, such person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) or by imprisonment for not more than forty five (45) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and for a third or subsequent conviction within eighteen (18) months after the first conviction, such person shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred ($500) or by imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.~~Chapter for which another penalty is not provided shall be punished by a fine or by imprisonment according to New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law. [Amended 4-27-99 by L.L. 1999-03]
- B. Failure to pay a fine as hereby provided or to appear in court voluntarily in answer or response to a ticket or summons will subject the operator or owner of such vehicle to a warrant for arrest and the imposition of such penalties as the law may provide.
- C.
